Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Saturday 20 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Windy with rain clearing to leave drier, cooler conditions overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will stay windy with further outbreaks of rain, heavy at times, during the evening, especially over the Pennines. However, the rain will become light and patchy, eventually clearing southeast to leave drier, clearer and cooler conditions overnight. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Sunday:
A drier and brighter day compared to Saturday, with some sunny spells. However, the far south may see cloudier skies throughout. Feeling mild, with lighter winds than of late. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday should see similar conditions to Sunday, ahead of windier and occasionally wetter weather spreading in towards midweek. Staying on the mild side.
